

Progress Report 3

For this progress report, I need the following in an .Rmd file:

1. Code that accesses a dataset that contains your dependent variable and most of your relevant independent variables.
2. A univariate graphic describing the dependent variable.
3. Results of two different analyses that predict your dependent variable (conditional means, regression, classification, k-means clustering)
4. Two graphics that show the results of your analyses above.